2020-2021: DVS Year in Review

DVS provides trauma-informed direct services to victims and survivors of domestic violence and their children in Lancaster County, as well as community awareness, education, and prevention programming. Direct services include 24-hour hotline and text line, Safe House/emergency shelter, Counseling, Children's Programming, the Domestic Violence Legal Center (DVLC), and Bridge House/transitional housing.

In 2020, DVS provided services to 1,788 victims and survivors of domestic violence.

1,331 were served by the DVLC; of these, 417 were represented by DVLC attorneys, and 491 were accompanied to court.

136 survivors received Community Counseling services.

188 adults and children resided in the DVS Safe House for a total of 8,195 "shelter nights"

18 families, including 25 children, resided at DVS' Bridge House transitional housing.

Counselor/Advocates answered 693 hotline calls and texts.

Legal advocates drafted 85 Protection From Abuse (PFA) petitions.

Volunteers provided 1,290 hours of direct service.
